G'day, my name is Jade.

A full-stack developer in the making

I aim to build programs that enrich people's lives.

Challenges

1. Lack of knowledge on:
   a. Layouts
   b. Color theory
   c. Css styling

2. Analysis Paralysis

3. Making it look good on mobile and desktop

4. What is currently possible?

Learnings:

- A healthy appreciation for good design work
- Properly plan CSS structure
- Know when to stop and move on
- Perfect is the enemy of the good
- There is still much to learn and that's ok
